

Mildred McCumber

Mildred M. McCumber, 89, of 3548 Farmstead Road died Saturday, Sept 16, 1995, at the St. Francis Medical Center.

Mildred was born July 16, 1906, to Sidney and Mabel (Metro) White in Doniphan. She grew up and went to school in Doniphan, and later attended Grand Island Senior High School. Her father, Sidney, was a barber in Doniphan and later in Grand Island.

She married Andrew McCumber on May 12 ' 1924, in Council Bluffs, Iowa..The couple lived in Stromsburg and then moved to Grand Island in 1926. Their first son, Wilbur, was born November 16, 1927. (Wilbur came to Wood River, Ne. Sept. 1 1953 and was associated with the Bank of Wood River since that time.)

Two more children, Richard and Joan, were born in Grand Island. They moved to Grand Island Farmsteads in 1935 where she lived until her death. Andrew died September 6 1992.

She loved her three children, eight grandchildren, and sixteen great-grandchildren. She and Andrew had many friends in the Grand Island-Wood River area. Mildred never found fault with anyone or anything and always appreciated what life presented. She was a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church and the Eagles Club, where she and her husband were Golden Eagle.
